Boris backed over extra NHS spend

BORIS Johnson's call for extra spending on the NHS after Brexit has been backed by Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt.

The Foreign Secretary's decision to make clear he would use yesterday's Cabinet meeting to press for an additional £5 billion for the NHS attracted a rebuke from PM Theresa May, who warned ministers they should keep such discussions private.

In a move that could put pressure on Mrs May to boost NHS spending, Mr Hunt later told the Commons Health Committee: "I don't think any health secretary is ever going to not support potential extra resources for his or her department."

May had pre-empted Mr Johnson as ministers gathered in No.10, telling the meeting any "Brexit dividend" would be allocated according to the Government's priorities.

New sex claim against Worboys

A NEW sexual assault allegation made against rapist John Worboys is being investigated by Scotland Yard.

The claim dates back to 1997 – several years earlier than when it was thought Worboys' offending started.

The sex attacker could remain in custody if the police investigation was speedy and led to criminal charges.

Former London black-cab driver Worboys, 60, was jailed indefinitely in 2009, with a minimum term of eight years, for drugging and sexually assaulting women passengers.

MOURNERS:
Ex-hubby Don and mum Eileen

CRANBERRIES singer Dolores O'Riordan's ex-husband and boyfriend were among mourners at her funeral in Ireland yesterday.

Her boyfriend Ole Koretsky joined ex-hubby Don Burton along with her three children Taylor, Molly and Dakota, and her stepson Donny.

Hundreds packed into a small church in rural Co Limerick to say farewell.

The 46-year-old was found dead in a London hotel room last week. In his homely, family friend Canon Liam McNamara said her voice was worth its weight in gold.

"Her kind personality and beautiful singing voice earned for her numerous admirers," he said.

"It must be added that the numbers she rescued from the darkness of depression are impossible to count.

Loos again

SEEING RED: Victoria can't stand hearing the name of Loos (above)

POSH Spice Victoria Beckham is reportedly FURIOUS that former nanny Rebecca Loos is back in the spotlight.

Rebecca, 40, claimed she was shagging Victoria's footballer husband David Beckham, 42, while working for the couple in 2004 when they moved to Madrid.

And she's back in the limelight after claiming disgraced PR guru Max Clifford, who died last year, once offered her £1MILLION for a sex tape.

A source claimed: "Vic feels like it's typical that when she's already under attack, Rebecca Loos comes out of the woodwork."

"Just seeing her name brings back memories of an awful time. She can't help but get upset."

Blasted

Fashion designer Victoria, 43, came under fire last week after posting a photo of an 'emaciated' model to promote her new eyewear range.

She captioned the image 'start the year with new frames' - but tons of fans, and even some of her famous friends, blasted the use of the super-skinny model.

Good Morning Britain host Piers Morgan, who's known Posh since her Spice Girls days, said the photo made him 'physically sick'.

He added he didn't want his six-year-old daughter 'growing up thinking this is the body image she should aspire to' and branded mum-of-four Victoria 'shockingly irresponsible'.

...AND MEL HAS POP AT GERI

SPORTY Spice Melanie Chisholm has blasted Geri Horner's singing ability and slammed her for splitting up the 90's girl band.

Mel C, 44 (right), insisted there's still a spark when the five girls get together but hit out at Ginger Spice, Geri, 45, for leaving the group in 1998.

She said: "Geri was a huge part of the band - maybe not singing-wise - but we all had a role to play. If you get all five of us together it's magical."

Accused's EDL message before London attack

THE man accused of carrying out a terrorist attack in Finsbury Park received a message warning of a growing nation built on "hatred, on violence and on Islam" from a Twitter account linked to English Defence League founder Tommy Robinson days before he allegedly ran down worshippers in a van.

Darren Osborne, of Glyn Rhosyn in Cardiff, deliberately mowed down the group in north London shortly after 12.15am on June 19 last year, prosecutors have alleged.

Prosecutor Jonathan Rees QC told Woolwich Crown Court he was not suggesting that the direct Twitter message was sent directly from Mr Robinson.

He said it was a "screen shot of communication" from Tommy Robinson's account to Osborne, which read: "There is a nation within a nation forming just beneath the surface of the UK.

"It is a nation built on hatred, on violence and on Islam."

Osborne denies murder and attempted murder and the trial continues.

He joined the breakfast show in January 2006 when it was still known as Virgin Radio, and previously hosted the same slot at indie music station Xfm for four years.

Tributes for Teletubbies star Simon

THE actor who played Tinky Winky in BBC children's TV series Teletubbies has died aged 52 of hypothermia after collapsing in the street.

Simon Shelton Barnes, a dad-of-three from Ampthill in Beds, had trained as a ballet dancer and choreographer before taking on the role as the purple Teletubby who carried a 'magic bag' in the show from 1998 to 2001.

His flatmate Judith Tynan, who lived with him in Wirral, said: "I'm very floored at losing him, he was just the best company. He was just the best person to live with and we got on terribly well."

Mr Barnes was the brother-in-law of Poldark actor Robert Daws and uncle of Inbetweeners star Emily Attack.

Emily, who played Charlotte Hinchcliffe in the E4 comedy, added: "My wonderful uncle Simon Barnes has been taken from us so suddenly."

The 74-year-old victim and a colleague, 42, were left without heat or power as they worked at a wind farm near New Cumnock in East Ayrshire over the weekend.

The Police Scotland Mountain Rescue Team went to the scene after the two men raised the alarm at around 8.50pm on Sunday.

The 74-year-old man was flown by helicopter to Edinburgh Royal Infirmary where he died a short time later.

Police and the Health and Safety Executive were yesterday carrying out a joint investigation into the incident.

An HSE spokesman said: "We are aware and making initial inquiries alongside police."

NAKED BOY'S 'SHOWER SEX ATTACK ON HARPIST ACCUSED OF ABUSING HIM'

A WORLD-renowned female harpist who denies abusing a schoolboy told a trial that the boy sexually assaulted her while she was in the shower.

Danielle Perrett, 59, and her ex-fiance Richard Barton-Wood, 68, are accused of sexually abusing a boy in his early teens in the 1980s.

The schoolboy, now an adult, claims Perrett took his virginity and performed a sex act on him in the shower the following morning.

He also claims that Barton-Wood indecently assaulted him on sailing trips and camping trips.

TRIPS: Barton-Wood

They both deny all charges.

Perrett, giving her evidence at Ipswich Crown Court, said Barton-Wood "seemed to have a kind of uncle-nephew relationship" with the boy, who had been a pupil at a school where he was a substitute teacher in Suffolk, but she never liked the boy.

She said she was "horried" when Barton-Wood turned up at her flat in London with the boy.

"He wasn't invited by me, I wasn't expecting him, I didn't like him," she said.

She said she was "angry" with Barton-Wood for bringing the boy, but reluctantly let them stay the night as it was late.

She described claims that she undressed in front of the boy in the bedroom as "complete lies" and said she got changed in the shower. Jurors were shown a full-length nightie with long sleeves and a high neck that Perrett, who was raised in a Christian household, said she wore that night. She said nothing sexual happened that night.

She said that the following morning while she was in the shower, the boy "forced himself into the shower".

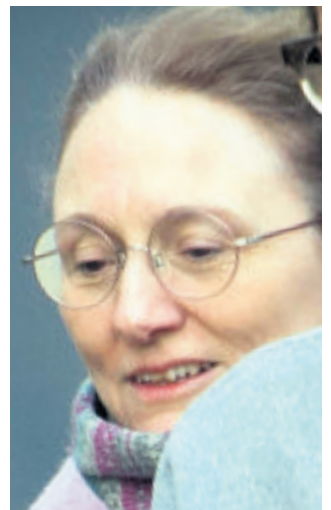

Condom

"He was naked but he had a condom on his penis," she said.

Asked if she said anything, she replied: "I was frozen in terror and he grabbed my wrists and pushed his penis against my pubic bone."

She said Barton-Wood did not see what happened. Sallie Bennett-Jenkins,

TERROR: Perrett claimed boy had condom on penis for Perrett, asked her if the incident affected her relationship with Barton-Wood. She replied "yes" and, when asked how, said: "I ended it."

Perrett later said: "I was angry that (Barton-Wood) brought him but he couldn't have had any idea what was going to happen."

She said that the boy contacted her years later as an adult and she felt it was "menacing".

"He said 'seeing as you're doing very nicely for yourself and you've got a very nice place here and seeing as I have nothing and seeing as I came to London to your gargantuan flat and seeing as I slept in your enormous bed, what do you think?"

She added: "There's no truth in any of (these allegations) and I've had to listen to lie upon lie."

Perrett, of Alpheton, Suffolk, denies six counts of indecent assault.

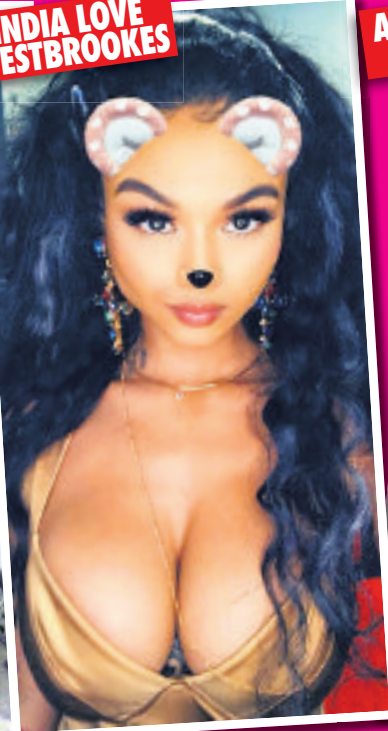

Barton-Wood, of Wymondham, Norfolk, denies seven counts of indecent assault and one count of attempted indecent assault.

The trial continues.

'I DIDN'T WANT SEX WITH KILLER BUILDER'

By EMILY PENNINK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

ONE of the women who says she was kidnapped, raped and slashed by an obsessed builder has slammed his claim they had consensual sex five times as "disgusting".

Mujahid Arshid, 33, is accused of murdering Celine Dookhran, 20, and attacking another woman at a disused house in Kingston, south-west London, in July last year.

Ms Dookhran's body was found stuffed into a freezer after the other woman raised the alarm and was taken to hospital with slashed wrists and neck, the Old Bailey has been told.

The prosecution allege

KILLED: Celine Dookhran

that Arshid abducted the pair and took them to a property he was renovating to satisfy his sexual fixation with them.

The survivor, who claims Arshid sexually assaulted her when she was under age, was cross-examined by the defendant's lawyer, Judith Khan QC.

The barrister suggested the witness "exaggerated" violence towards her in online chats with her friends.

Woman denies 'five times' claim

She asserted that Arshid had only slapped her two or three times.

The unnamed witness said: "I 100% disagree," and on the suggestion that she had kissed the defendant on one occasion, she said, "Hell no."

Ms Khan went on: "It was the following day you had sexual intercourse with him?" Speaking from behind a curtain in court, the witness replied: "That's disgusting. I would never do that."

The lawyer said: "You had intercourse with him on about five occasions consensually."

The woman burst into tears as she said: "He's lying. It never happened."

The day before her death, Ms Dookhran's family tried to persuade her to split up with her Libyan boyfriend, the court heard.

Some "harsh" words were exchanged, leaving the victim "very upset" and intent on running away, Ms Khan said.

DENIAL: Mujahid Arshid

Arshid, of no fixed address, denies murder, attempted murder, rape of both women and the previous sexual assault and assault by penetration of the surviving woman when she was about 13.

Together with labourer Vincent Tappu, 28, from Acton, west London, he has also pleaded not guilty to the women's kidnap and false imprisonment and possession of a firearm with intent.

Study shows third of UK teens have assaulted

A "SURPRISINGLY large" number of teens have assaulted someone, new research shows.

Almost a third (31%) of 14-year-olds have shoved, hit, slapped or punched a person.

And more than 10% of 14-year-olds admit to binge drinking.

New analysis of data from the Millennium Cohort Study – which tracks the lives of thousands of youngsters born in the UK in 2000/01 – found rates of assault were higher among boys, with 41% of boys and 21% of girls admitting they had done this.

The authors wrote that the number was "surprisingly large".

Experts from the Centre for Longitudinal Studies, part of the UCL Institute of Education, analysed data on risk-taking behaviour among 11,000 14-year-olds.

Overall, 14% of teenagers had caused a public nuisance – such as being noisy or rude in a public place – at least once in the previous 12 months.

Researchers found that by the time they were 14, half of British teens had experimented with alcohol, smoking or drugs in some way.

Less than 1% had been binge drinking by age 11, compared to almost 11% at age 14.

Kim 'can fire at us in 2yrs'

NORTH Korea could develop weapons within the next TWO YEARS that may be capable of reaching and striking Britain, MPs have been warned.

Kim Jong-un's regime in recent months has conducted increasingly sophisticated nuclear tests as it expanded its missile programme – prompting a rise in international tensions.

Defence minister Earl Howe told the cross-party Defence Committee that North Korea's capability has been "significantly developed", adding: "Our judgment is it is probably six to 18 months before they can reach the US – or indeed ourselves."

GIRL STUDENT 'WOKE TO FIND QC'S SON FORCING PENIS INTO HER MOUTH'

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

THE son of a high-flying British barrister has appeared in court accused of raping a 20-year-old student.

George Fay, 23, clambered into bed with the woman after she had consensual sex with his friend, who was asleep beside her, prosecutor Sara Sullivan told a jury.

"As she slept next to her friend, she thought she was safe," she said.

"Instead, she woke up to this man George Fay, a stranger, forcing oral sex as she lay sleeping."

Fay, whose QC father Michael sits as a deputy high court judge in the Caribbean and is now based in the British Virgin Islands, had spent the night drinking with friends, including his childhood pal Jack Slye.

He gave Slye the keys to his parents' Upper East Side New York apartment so he could "hook-up" with a casual girlfriend, the court heard.

Abuse

The couple fell asleep after having sex and did not hear Fay come into the room, it was claimed.

Giving evidence for the prosecution, Slye told Manhattan Supreme Court he was in the city celebrating his 22nd birthday and asked to stay at Fay's flat.

He described his relationship with the woman as "random and sporadic", saying they

RAPE CHARGE: Fay denies attack

"hooked up every now and again".

Fay, dressed in an expensive charcoal grey suit, blue and white striped shirt and patterned tie, stared intently at his friend as he gave evidence.

He has pleaded not guilty to three counts of rape, sex abuse and committing a criminal sexual act while the victim was 'physically incapable' of giving consent.

Fay, once a star lacrosse player at his expensive American boarding school, is on bail but is understood to be wearing an ankle monitor.

The student, whose family now split their time between the Channel Islands, the Virgin Islands and America, was arrested shortly after the alleged attack in July 2016.

Fay's mother Sofia, a partner in a Caribbean PR company, sat at the back of the court listening to the evidence.

His 53-year-old father, an honorary member of London's Radcliffe Chambers and now a partner in a top Virgin Islands law firm, was also in court and is expected to give evidence for the defence.

Gagged

Fay's lawyer Steve Sirocco told the jury that the woman had given "several versions" of what had happened, including "omissions and distortions".

He told them: "She woke up with a stranger's penis in her mouth. She gagged? No. She screamed? No. She struggled? No. She fell back to sleep."

The trial, expected to last two weeks, continues.

CELEB BIG-BRUV JESS AND JAMIE STRIP EACH OTHER ON RAUNCHY NIGHTS OUT

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

CELEBRITY Big Brother babe Jess Impiazzì might have been keeping herself covered up in the reality show but she's a SERIAL FLASHER when she's out with best pal Jamie Jenkins.

The jaw-dropping duo have been pictured out and about tons of times in the past – and forget painting the town red, they paint it BLUE with their saucy antics.

Surrey stunnas Jess, 27, and Jamie, 25, have a whole host of party tricks that keep lucky onlookers entertained.

Flaunt

But their favourite antic seems to be pulling down their dresses to flash the cameras.

They've also hoisted up their little black dresses to show off their matching thongs and perfect pins.

Both beauties boast a pair of ample assets, with Jess more than happy to flaunt her 34DD knockers.

And fellow exhibitionist Jamie provides healthy competition with her equally impressive 32C norks.

SHOWBIZ couple Cheryl and Liam Payne are reportedly at war over where to settle down with their 10-month-old baby.

Reports are rife that although Liam is keen for them to move to LA, Cheryl isn't a fan of leaving her Surrey baby bubble behind.

Liam, 24, spent most of 2017 in California recording music, and instead of splitting his time he's keen for Cheryl, 34, and their child Bear to relocate to the LA sunshine.

Disastrous

However, after her disastrous spell on The X Factor US back in 2011, Cheryl is said to be determined to stay put in the UK as she plans to relaunch her career over here.

A source claimed: "Liam thinks that it's important for him to be based over in the US full-time, for his career, and he's exhausted from the travel."

Teen arrested after school pupil killed

A 15-YEAR-OLD student has been arrested on suspicion of killing a fellow pupil at a school in western Germany.

Dortmund police said paramedics were called on Tuesday morning to the school in the nearby town of Lünen but were unable to resuscitate the 14-year-old German victim.

The suspect, who has German and Kazakh citizenship, was arrested shortly after the incident.

Police investigating the circumstances of the killing said rumours on social media that the attack was directed at a person who was not the victim could not be confirmed.

Neither boy was identified.

Relatives of the victim, students and teachers at the school are getting psychological counselling.

STAYING PUT:
Star wants to stay in UK while Liam (below) eyes US move

"He wants Cheryl and Bear there with him. Long-term, he thinks it's the best thing for them as a family."

"Her argument is that it will be so much more difficult for her to relaunch her solo career in a country where no-one knows her – her fan base is here in the UK.

"She is saying that surely they can just make it work this way."

"Of course, Liam respects this but he loves the idea of moving out to LA in the very near future."

"He's offering her whatever she wants to make it work."

Cheryl is notoriously close to her mum, Joan, and is planning on relaunching her music career this year, which makes an LA move seem pretty difficult.

As well as attempting to make new music, Cheryl is said to be deciding whether to return to the British X Factor as a judge.

THE COMMUTER MOVIE BABES GO TOPLESS...

Boobs on a train!

RAIL RILED: Neeson looks ready to shoot a load

By BECCA STUBBS news@sundaysport.co.uk

ACTOR Liam Neeson stars in his latest action-packed flick The Commuter – and he's joined by a whole host of topless totty.

Liam, 65, plays insurance salesman Michael when a daily commute home takes a turn for the worst.

There are plenty of fit females on the train to keep him occupied, but they won't be seen in the film looking like this.

Starring opposite Taken star Liam is Vera Farmiga, 44, who plays Joanna in The Commuter but whipped out her ample assets in 2004 drama Down to the Bone.

Thriller

Curvy Clara Lago, 27, plays Eva in the train-based thriller, but she laid bare in 2008 movie The Hanged Man.

Joining Liam in the blockbuster is brunette babe Elizabeth McGovern, 56, who portrays Karen in The Commuter and stripped off in 1990 romance film Women & Men: Stories of Seduction.

Upcoming starlet Florence Pugh, 22, has landed her first role of 2018 playing Gwen in the action film, but she's no stranger to nudity having gone topless in 2016 film Lady Macbeth.

Man accused of frenzied stab murder

A MAN stabbed his ex-girlfriend to death in a frenzied attack in a shopping centre car park after begging her not to break up with him, a court heard.

Joshua Stimpson met 23-year-old student Molly McLaren on Tinder and they dated for seven months until things turned sour and she ended the relationship.

Just two weeks later he bought a kitchen knife and attacked her in her car in Chatham, Kent, his trial at Maidstone Crown Court heard.

The 26-year-old admits manslaughter but denies murder – a plea not accepted by the Crown Prosecution Service.

Prosecutor Philip Bennetts QC said: "There is no dispute that he killed Molly McLaren."

"The manslaughter plea is on the basis that at the time of the killing, Joshua Stimpson was suffering from diminished responsibility."

"The prosecution does not accept that he was."

Football star now President Weah

FORMER football star George Weah has been sworn into office as Liberia's new president.

The 51-year-old (above) took over the leadership of the impoverished West African nation from Africa's first female president.

Weah, who was Fifa's 1995 player of the year, won the run-off vote on December 26 against the outgoing vice president.

He had a glittering football career playing in France, Italy, the UK and elsewhere.

He is faced with tackling Liberia's youth unemployment and other major challenges.

NO DATE: Olivia denies having a fling with star

THESE are the magnificent boobs Guardians of the Galaxy star Chris Pratt is going to have to do without!

Ocean's 8 beauty Olivia Munn was quick to deny media reports that her pursuit of Chris had upset his ex-wife Anna Faris.

Olivia even sent her tweets

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

that she wasn't dating Chris – who rose to fame in Jurassic World and the TV comedy Parks & Recreation – to Emoji Movie stunner Anna to defuse the row.

In a series of tweets, she wrote: "1. Not every woman is scorned and upset after a breakup."

"2. Not every woman is 'furious' at another woman for dating her ex."

"3. So even if I was dating @prattprattpratt, some tabloids got me and @annafaris all wrong."

"4. Women respect and love each other a lot more than some people like to think."

"5. Chris and I would have a horrible celebrity name: Crolivia. Prunn. Chrisivia. Olipratt."

Pratt and Faris filed for divorce in December 2017 after eight years of marriage.

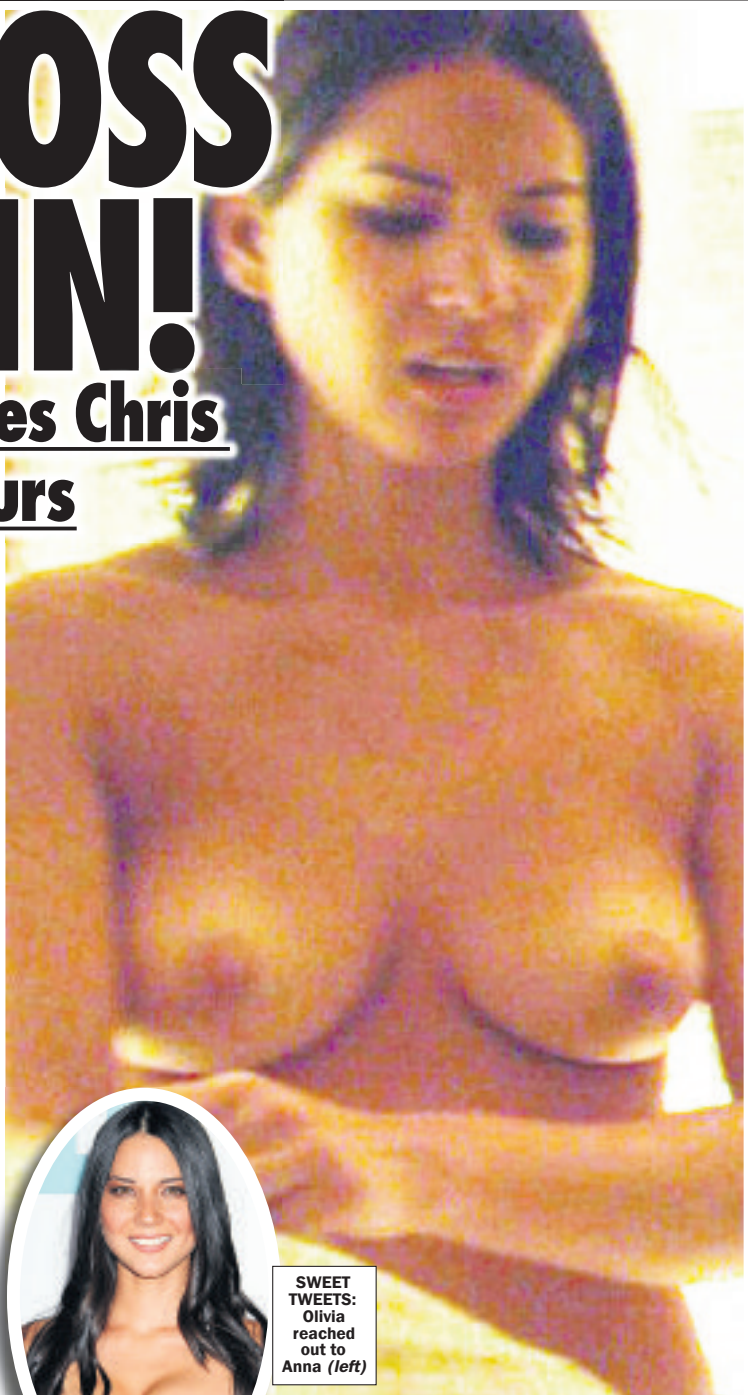

Random

Munn also shared a screenshot of a text with Faris, in which she stressed there was no truth in reports she was dating Pratt.

Her message said: "Hey there! I would never respond to random tabloid stories, but since we know each other I wanted to reach out to you personally to tell you the story about me and Chris dating has 0% truth."

"I'm sure you already know it's not true, or maybe you didn't care either way."

Faris responded: "Hi! Oh my God – this town is so fking crazy. You are so sweet to text – I love you, having said that if you were my new sister-in-law I would be thrilled!"

ABUSE CLAIMS FOOTIE COACH 'PINNED WITNESS TO WALL LIKE DARTH VADER'

A FOOTBALL coach pinned a schoolboy to the wall in Crewe Alexandra's changing rooms with a "Darth Vader grip" after he interrupted him fondling another youngster, a jury has heard.

The witness told Barry Bennell's sex abuse trial the defendant then threatened he would ruin his football career if he told anyone what he had seen.

Liverpool Crown Court heard the witness gave his account of the alleged incident in the 1980s to police after reading reports about Bennell in 2016.

Giving evidence yesterday, the then Crewe youth team player recalled that he rushed back to the club's Gresty Road ground from the nearby railway station after he realised he was missing one of his football boots.

He told the court as he entered the changing room, he saw a young boy half-dressed, sitting on Bennell's knee.

The witness recalled seeing Bennell's left arm around the youngster in a "cuddling fashion" and Bennell was fondling him down his football shorts.

He said: "Barry was startled to see me come back. He got up and shouted at me, 'What the fk are you doing?'"

"At that point he jumped up, stormed at me and pinned me to the wall."

"If you can imagine Star Wars and Darth Vader...it was like a Darth Vader grip."

He said the young boy ran out of the changing room and Bennell (left) told him: "You have not seen anything."

"If you say anything to anyone I will make sure I finish your football career here and now."

The witness said that from then on Bennell had a "psychological hold" over him.

The young boy the witness claimed Bennell had fondled is one of 11 complainants aged from eight to 14 who say they were abused by Bennell, 64, between 1979 and 1990.

Bennell denies indecent assault, buggery and attempted buggery. The trial continues.

PISH 'N' CHIPS:
Chippy already sells alcohol
until 11pm

UK's first 24/7 chippy FRYING ALL NIGHT!

A FISH and chip shop is set to become the first in Britain to open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Parc Lane Fish and Chips, in Cardiff city centre, currently has a licence to open until 11pm – and sell alcohol until that time.

It has now applied to Cardiff Council to “be open to the public 24 hours a day, seven days a week” and to serve alcohol until midnight.

The National Federation of Fish Friers said there are “no other 24-hour fish and chips shops in operation” that they are aware of.

Its president Andrew Crook said: “We think it has a great chance of success.”

Objections

The council has also received an application for the nearby Pulse Nightclub to extend its opening hours.

However objections to the plans have been submitted by South Wales Police, hotel chain Jurys Inn and local residents.

Chief Inspector Joe Jones, of South Wales

By CLARE HAYHURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Police, wrote that the premises were “situated in an area which has high incidents of crime and disorder and those associated with alcohol”.

He also highlighted that “the premises are situated in an area which have incidents of public nuisance”.

Mr Jones said police would object to the plans unless the applicant could demonstrate there would be “no negative cumulative impact”.

One resident wrote: “As a resident of this small area of the city, I do not wish to see an increase in drunkenness, crime and disorder, noise, litter and general disruption”.

Solicitors for Jurys Inn wrote that the hotel had already received complaints from guests about noise “which in some cases has required refunds for customers”.

Kelly vows to lose weight – off her boobs!

MODEL Kelly Brook has vowed to wow fans by getting in the shape of her life this year – even if it means having SMALLER boobs.

Kelly, 38, has seen her weight increase slightly over the past few years and she's keen to get back to peak fitness.

She shared a throwback photo of herself wearing a sexy green bikini from her modelling days and claimed she's using the photo as 'inspiration'.

Stunning model Kelly (above) said: "Getting myself in the best shape this year. Ran ten miles in total this weekend! Cardio is a killer."

"January is turning out to be a fantastic start to 2018. I've been training and working hard."

Kelly revealed her weight gain has seen her boobs increase in size.

She added: "My bras were not supporting me and it's completely thrown my back out."

"So now I'm literally training to try to lose weight off my boobs."

River body is missing schoolgirl Ursula, 11

A BODY found in a river in West Yorkshire has been formally identified as that of a missing 11-year-old schoolgirl.

Ursula Keogh (above) was found dead in Hebble Brook at Paris Gates in Halifax on Monday.

She had last been seen that afternoon dressed in her school uniform.

In a statement, West Yorkshire police said they are "working to establish the full circumstances".

The dead girl's family are being supported by specialist officers.

Police had earlier said it is not believed there are any suspicious circumstances.

CHLOE'S RUGBY HUNK: I'VE SWALLOWED SPERM!

FISHY: Chloe now knows Haskell has eaten cod jizz

NICE PAIR: Claire arrives to collect her second award

CHLOE Madelay's hunky rugby boyfriend James Haskell has admitted to swallowing SPUNK while on holiday in Japan.

James, 32, confessed to chomping some strange things in his life but revealed he'd eaten cod sperm on a recent trip to Asia.

The England flanker also ate a raw pig's heart earlier in his life before swallowing the jizz.

He said: "When I played in Japan, I ended up eating cod sperm."

Salty

"It tasted as you imagine – salty hell – so I won't be ordering that again."

"But I'm a big foodie, so I don't mind."

"My mother's always taught me from a young age to try any food once – that if it looks shit, it doesn't mean it is."

"In a biology lesson, when I was 15, there was a pig's heart to dissect and the teacher left the room."

"Being the classic idiot, I accepted bets on whether I'd bite out a piece of heart."

"I ate the pig's heart raw and obviously it was horrific."

"But the cash kept me in Domino's pizza for about three weeks!"

Super-fit couple James and 30-year-old Chloe – the daughter of Richard Madeley and Judy Finnigan – aren't shy about showing off their gym-honed bodies and regularly post snaps on social media.

But James has seen his international career take a hit.

The Wasps flanker was banned from England's first two Six Nations matches after being sent off for a dangerous tackle on a Harlequins player.

Claire's pair of crown jewels

AWARD-WINNING actress Claire Foy won her second Screen Actors Guild award in a row – but she's got two stunning gongs of her very own to show off.

The 33-year-old British rose won Outstanding Performance by a Female Actor in a Drama Series for her portrayal of Queen Elizabeth in the Netflix drama The Crown.

But Claire made a regal impression on moviegoers back in 2011 when she peeled off her clothes to reveal her pert pair in historical drama The Night Watch.

#HOT'N'HORNY

PLAYBOY babe Kate Darcy says the way to her heart is by having a cosy night in.

Stunning Kate, 24, has flown the flag for the UK at the Playboy mansion in LA and it's not hard to see why she was picked to become a bunny - with her 32DD norks.

Away from the partying, Hartlepool-born Kate much prefers a romantic night in with a fit fella.

She said: "I've had some pretty wild times over at the Playboy mansion - some of them are probably way too rude to print!"

"But when I'm back home I love to relax with a large glass of red wine and a nice box of chocolates.

"I still love to let loose and when I do, you'll catch me downing vodka shots and dancing on tables in clubs!"

CAITLIN: NOW I WANT TO BE A MUM!

TRANSGENDER reality star Caitlyn Jenner has already fathered six children in her former life – but now she wants to have one more, to experience being a MUM.

Despite being 68-years-old, Caitlyn is said to be desperate to experience motherhood after transitioning four years ago.

However, she's planning to use a very in-demand surrogate and wants the same woman who just gave birth to step-daughter Kim Kardashian, 37, and 40-year-old Kanye West's third child.

Caitlyn has allegedly already reached out to Kim's surrogate, causing more friction between the at-war family.

A source claimed: "Kim is convinced this is being done to spite her. There are dozens of surrogates who could help her out."

"The family is in uproar, but there doesn't seem to be any chance of talking Caitlyn out of it."

"She really wants to have the experience of being a mum."

"In her mind it makes sense to do this, as the woman has already proven herself trustworthy."

"She knows what a perfectionist Kim is, and that she would have done her research and has the surrogate thoroughly vetted."

Kim and Kanye's surrogate gave birth to the couple's daughter, Chicago West, with the unknown woman receiving a rumoured £32,000 from the A-list couple.

Doctors advised Kim not to go through labour again as she suffers with the life-threatening condition, placenta accrete, which occurs during pregnancy.

Missing dog racist row

A GIRL'S missing dog has caused a massive row on social media – because the mutt is called NEGRO.

Twitter user Becky took to social media to seek help tracking down her pooch – which led to others questioning her choice of moniker.

Rather than Fido or Spike, Becky named her dog after the Spanish word for black, because that's the colour of her pet pooch.

Becky is also from Mexico, hence the Spanish use of the term.

She tweeted: "Negro is missing. Please, if anyone sees him message me!"

Many criticised her online, but there was also support.

One Twitter user said: "All the sensitive people in this thread don't understand that negro in Spanish means black – the colour, not the racist term."

Baywatch Pam: Assange sex claim a 'setup'

HOLLYWOOD actress Pamela Anderson has described Julian Assange as a "genius" and said a rape allegation against him was a "setup".

The former Baywatch pin-up, 50, visited the WikiLeaks founder, 46, at the Ecuadorian Embassy in London, where he has been living since 2012 to avoid extradition to Sweden.

"I would rather be a friend to Julian than anybody," she said.

"I think he's so full of information, has an incredible perspective and is a genius and is trying to help humanity.

"What he is doing is very, very important and we need to know, we need to have true information."

Pam (above) added: "The best way to discredit somebody is to call them a rapist, or a paedophile.

"How do you get over that, even if it's not true?"

"So I think this was a setup, this was not something that was true."

Fried chicken attacker bailed

A MAN was arrested after throwing a piece of fried chicken in his girlfriend's face during a row.

Juwan Brown, 23, was held after a dispute with his live-in lover turned violent at their home in St Petersburg, Florida.

After Brown trod on the woman's foot, he "threw a piece of chicken at the victim, striking her in the left side of her face and glasses," according to the police report.

He was arrested and booked into the county jail before being bailed.

Brown was arrested in 2015 for striking the same woman, who was pregnant at the time.

DANIELLE SOAKS UP THE SUN!

MODEL Danielle Lloyd showed off her jaw-dropping figure as she went topless on a recent sun-soaked holiday.

The 34-year-old former WAG wore a pair of tiny red bikini bottoms for her poolside display and posed up a storm for the cameras.

Dishy Dani, who previously appeared on Celebrity Big Brother, covered up her ample assets with an arm as she made sure to get an all-round tan.

A MARRIED teacher has been arrested and accused of performing oral sex on a teenage pupil.

Dori Myers, 29, was also allegedly seen "massaging" the victim.

Police were alerted after the 14-year-old boy, one of Myers' students, told one of his classmates.

That classmate told a school administrator, who notified the police.

Myers, a social studies teacher at The New School for Leadership and the Arts in Kingsbridge, New York, denies the allegations.

She lives in Rockland County, New York State, where her husband is a deputy sheriff.

Her lawyer told reporters that Myers started a track team at the Bronx high school - where she has worked since 2014.

Partying

"It takes just one person's accusation to make an arrest in this town and she's a model citizen who looks forward to clearing her name," the lawyer said.

The teacher's Facebook page showed a series of smiling photos in which she laughed with friends and drank straight out of champagne bottles before it was deleted.

Myers also wrote about her students and partying in a number of different posts.

In several now-deleted photos she wore shirts with catchy slogans about booze - such as 'Whiskey makes me frisky' and 'Champagne All Day'.

In a tweet from 2015, which has now been deleted, Myers bragged that her students often commented on her looks.

The Department of Education has called the allegations 'deeply troubling' but said Myers has no prior disciplinary history.

She hasn't been fired but reassigned for now "away from students".

Dope texts cop asking for weed

A POTHEAD sent a text message asking to buy marijuana - then realised he had sent the message to a POLICEMAN.

The Gainesville Police Department in Florida posted screenshots of the text messages between the unidentified dope fiend and the officer on Facebook.

They wrote: "If you're looking to score drugs please double check the number before you text."

The unidentified drugs user had texted: "Hey do you have bud I might need some."

And the reply from the detective read: "I think you have the wrong number. Drugs are no good for you," and shared an image of his police badge.

"Oh my God! I'm so sorry," the man replied.

It is unclear whether he has been arrested.

Botox camels banned from beauty show

A DOZEN camels have been disqualified from this year's Saudi Arabia camel beauty contest – because their handlers used BOTOX to make them more handsome.

Seeking to transform the conservative kingdom, the Saudi authorities are trying to smooth the path for reform by emphasising traditional aspects of their culture.

For the Bedouin of Arabia, nothing is more essential than the camel – used for centuries for food, transport, as a war machine and also as a companion.

Authorities ramped up the country's annual month-long camel festival, which was relocated last year from the remote desert to the outskirts of the capital Riyadh.

But speaking about the Botox ban, chief judge Fawzan al-Madi said: "The camel is a symbol of Saudi Arabia.

"We used to preserve it out of necessity, now it's as a pastime."

COUPLE CAUGHT HAVING SEX ON A BUS!

A PASSENGER caught a couple getting steamy on a London bus and posted the outrageous footage online.

The unknown man spotted the pair getting jiggy in the seat opposite him and whipped out his phone to Snapchat the X-rated moment.

He claimed the woman was giving her man a BLOWJOB while on the top deck of a moving bus in Hounslow, West London.

In the short clip, the woman appears to be hunched over the fella, with her head buried deep into his lap.

Bobbing

Neither of them are seen talking on the Snapchat video but the man looks down at her head while she's seen bobbing up and down.

It's not known exactly which route the bus was taking, or what time it was, but it appears to be at night.

The man's Snapchat video shows the footage

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

and his comment on the clip reads: "I'm moving location man said she's giving brain on the bus."

A Transport for London spokesperson yesterday said: "This behaviour is lewd and disgusting, and will not be tolerated on our network."

"We're working with the Metropolitan Police and the bus operators to look into this."

"Anyone who sees behaviour like this should report it to the police and it will be investigated."

Tatts man gives cops the slip

POLICE are being ridiculed for not being able to find a man wanted for aggravated burglary and domestic violence who CHOKED his victim – after releasing his heavily-tattooed mugshot.

Officers say Michael Mann climbed through an unlocked window of a home and choked the owner.

Mann, 34 (below), who is described as being 6ft 3ins and weighing around 13 stone, also has distinctive ink on his face that has left social media fans wondering how you could fail to spot him in a crowd.

One wrote online: "Mmmm... He's going to blend in real good, ain't he? I'd never recognise him, would I?"

Police say Mann has a history of domestic violence, aggravated robberies and drug charges.

He was last known to live in Green Township, Cincinnati.

CURVY Charley Atwell has a whole book on sex positions.

And she's just waiting for a man to practise her new moves on.

The 27-year-old model, from Islington, north London, showed off her amazing tattoo collection in these sexy shots and posed seductively in a tiny red lace thong.

However, the 32D stunna can't decide which naughty sex position she likes to bonk in the most, and has a Kama Sutra book if she ever needs inspiration.

#HOT 'N' HORNY

She said: "I'd probably say on top is my favourite. "It's the sexiest position and I like being in control. "There's something quite raunchy about climbing onto a man and riding him."

Birthday

"There are plenty of other positions I like, too."

"My mates bought me a Kama Sutra sex book as a joke for my birthday."

"I haven't had chance to use it yet but it's on my bookshelf, waiting to be opened."

"I can't wait to learn a few new bedroom routines!"

ATWELL

FORMER US President Barack Obama told actress Margot Robbie he was a huge fan of her on-screen performances.

Margot, 27, met Obama while on holiday in Tahiti and the former Yank leader admitted to ogling her on screen – including her NUDE scenes in 2013 flick The Wolf of Wall Street.

Obama, 56, confessed to loving her on-screen antics, as Margot recalled bumping into him on her honeymoon with husband Tom Ackerley, 28.

Blonde beauty Margot said: "Yeah, he knew who I was. And he was like, 'You're a very talented actress'."

"And I was like, 'Oh my God, Obama knows who I am'. And he was like, 'We were just talking about you the other night'. It was crazy."

Attack

Her upcoming biopic, I, Tonya, follows the true story of disgraced ice skater Tonya Harding and the 1994 attack on her rival Nancy Kerrigan by her ex-husband Jeff Gillooly.

Despite not knowing it was a real-life story when she accepted the role, Margot's performance in the flick has seen her nominated for Best Actress at the Oscars.

Talking about her preparation for the role of Tonya, Margot added: "I didn't know it was a true story, so I wasn't familiar with the whole thing. But my angle was 'I don't have any preconceived notions about this person the rest of the world seems to hate so much'."

Idris: Bond talk is so boring now

ACTOR Idris Elba is growing tired of the James Bond rumours and reckons the whole thing has turned into a FARCE.

Idris, 45, has been hotly tipped to play the 007 spy – but the hunky British star (above) insists he's never been approached about the famous role.

He said: "For every actor that's a pinnacle role, but at this point it has become a bit of a farce. I'm numb to it now."

"Do something different with it, why not? It's interesting that the James Bond thing continues to go."

"I think it's more about, 'We just want to have a black guy play James Bond rather than Idris Elba, the actor, play James Bond'."

"That's the part that I'm like, 'Ugh, come on'."

"Right now it's Daniel Craig, and I'm very happy with Daniel Craig, but who knows what the future will bring?"

"I've never been approached to play Bond."

Idris is busy filming the fifth series of gritty crime thriller Luther.

Frozen 'poo' ball mystery

AN icy ball which fell on a village in the northern Indian state of Haryana is thought to be frozen human SHIT dumped out of an aeroplane.

The 26lbs chunk of ice fell on Fazilpur Badli with a "big thud", startling locals on Saturday.

Senior Gurgaon official Vivek Kalia said some villagers thought it was an "extra-terrestrial" object.

Plane toilets store human waste in special tanks and are normally disposed of once the plane has landed.

But authorities have admitted leaks can sometimes occur while planes are in the air.

Mr Kalia added that a sample of the projectile had been sent for chemical analysis, but said "we suspect strongly that it is frozen airline excrement".

Michelle wows 'em in States!

SHE PUTS MARK IN THE SHADE

ACTRESS Michelle Keegan is wowing Hollywood with her good looks and British charm – but her hubby is growing jealous of all the attention she's getting.

Michelle, 30, jetted out to LA to spend time with husband Mark Wright, 31, who's carved out a career in Tinseltown as a TV presenter.

However, he's been left in the shade as Yanks can't seem to get enough of his gorgeous wife.

A source said: "Michelle hasn't crossed any boundaries, but she's been flirting up a storm in LA. She has to if she wants to launch her career in Hollywood."

Drooling

"She had half the LA Kings hockey team drooling over her when they went to see a game."

"One of the players totally made a play for her after the game."

"Mark was doing his best to keep his cool, but you could tell he wasn't happy. The player tried to slip Michelle his number!"

"The truth is, Mark is jealous of the attention Michelle's been getting. She's a beautiful woman and he doesn't want anyone taking advantage of her. But Michelle is a feisty girl. She can hold her own and she knows how talented she is."

By BECCA STUBBS

"She's not relying on her looks to make it – her acting work speaks for itself."

Mark moved across the pond in September after announcing his gig as a presenter on American show Extra.

Now former Corrie star Michelle is keen to make a name for herself over there, too, and has been networking at showbiz parties.

Murdoch can't reach for Sky

MEDIA mogul Rupert Murdoch has been dealt a blow after Britain's competition regulator ruled his plans to take control of Sky were not in the public interest.

Murdoch's company 21st Century Fox wanted to buy up the 61 per cent of Sky which it does not already own for £11.7 billion.

But the deal – originally agreed more than a year ago – attracted the attention of regulators, who looked into whether it would give the Murdoch family too much influence in the UK.

dealer avoids prison term

A TELLY actor who appeared in top crime dramas Peaky Blinders and Ripper Street has avoided prison despite being unmasked as a drug dealer who sold cannabis cookies, cakes and sweets.

Gideon Goldstraw, 48, was arrested after police spotted him using his mobile phone at the wheel of his car and discovered he was driving under the influence of cannabis.

The bit-part actor, who also played a Manchester United football fan opposite Hollywood star Brian Cox in the 2011 Sir Matt Busby biopic Theatre of Dreams, had drug paraphernalia in his vehicle, including 15 snap bags, scales and a debtors book.

Police then found £1,200-worth of cannabis, which was seized along with his mobile phone containing 2,000 text messages related to drug dealing.

Goldstraw, of Chorlton, Manchester, admitted drug dealing at Manchester Crown Court and was given an eight-month prison sentence, suspended for two years.

He was also ordered to complete 200 hours of unpaid community work.

KILLER NURSE CHARGED WITH
97
MURDERS

A NURSE serving a life sentence for two murders has been charged with another 97 deaths.

Niels Hoegel was jailed for life in February 2015 for killing two intensive care patients at a hospital in Delmenhorst, near Germany's northern city of Bremen.

The new charges include 62 further deaths at the same hospital.

The other 35 charges relate to the deaths of patients at a hospital in the northwestern city of Oldenburg, where he worked as a nurse from 1999 to 2002 before moving to work in Delmenhorst between 2003 and 2005.

During his trial, Hoegel had said he intentionally brought about cardiac crises in about 90 patients in Delmenhorst because he enjoyed the feeling of being able to resuscitate them.

Exhumed

That admission prompted investigators to begin looking at hundreds of deaths at the two hospitals during his time there.

In total, investigators exhumed 130 former patients, looking for traces of medication that could have shut down their cardiovascular systems.

Hoegel was caught when another nurse saw that a patient who had previously been stable had developed an irregular heartbeat.

Hoegel was already in the room when the patient had to be resuscitated and the nurse found empty medication containers in the waste bin, which Hoegel had put there.

Hoegel was convicted of two murders and two attempted murders in Delmenhorst.

He was given a life sentence.

Heckler attacks stand-up comic

A STAND-UP comic has been violently attacked by a heckler during a gig.

Steve Brown had picked out the man sat in the front row and told him he looked "grumpy".

But the audience member flipped, leapt up on stage and started attacking the funnyman, swinging a mic stand and then a bar stool at him during the incident at the Comedy House in Columbia, South Carolina.

Brown later took to Instagram, writing: "This unprovoked attack is a reminder of why these comedy clubs should have professional security to protect entertainers."

#POSTERBABE

By BECCA STUBBS

becca@sundaysport.co.uk

JUICY Joey Fisher reckons she puts fellas under a SPELL with her sweater-stretching norks.

Welsh stunna Joey, 24, hails from Cardiff and her 32H knockers have fellas falling at her feet.

She said: "Having big boobs is great, you fill out clothes so well.

"It's true I'm always being complimented on them. You can imagine how much attention I get, especially from guys.

"On nights out they're drawn to them, like my boobs put them under a spell – it's hilarious!"

Deeper

Once one of the lucky blokes has impressed Joey, he's in for a treat in the bedroom – as she loves showing off her bottom with doggy-style shagging.

She added: "Doggy style is best. It just feels great in that position because a guy can go deeper.

"It's naughty too and one of the sexiest positions in the Kama Sutra.

"It's definitely good for my partner too, because of the lovely view he gets!"

Lisa Walker says...

I CAN'T get enough of a Scottish or Irish accent - a sexy accent can literally talk me into bed within minutes!

Sexy Susi says...

FOR me, it doesn't matter what their accent is - it's what happens between the sheets that matters...and you really don't need to speak to shag!

Women say 'Och aye' to sexy Scots accent!

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

WOMEN find men with a Scottish accent the sexiest – with the Celtic twang getting ladies all hot under the collar.

A new survey carried out by an online dating website for married people revealed the top 10 accents women find most attractive.

Although it's good news for those north of the border, it's bad news for fellas living in the West Country – as that's been voted the least sexiest of all the UK dialects.

As many as 17% of women quizzed by IllicitEncounters.com said they wouldn't date someone if they had an unattractive accent, leaving plenty of folk across the UK at a disadvantage as soon as they open their mouths.

The survey of 750 men and women found that Scottish blokes were handed a whopping 24% of the vote.

Disadvantage

On the other hand, people from the West Country looking for love are at a disadvantage as they received less than 1% of the female vote.

Other popular accents women liked men to have included posh – which had 20% of the vote – and Irish men gained 19%.

Mancunians impressed 14% of women with their Northern tones while Geordies landed a mere 8% of the vote.

Scousers were close to the bottom with just 4% of women finding the Liverpoolian accent sexy on a man.

Website spokesman Christian Grant said: "As the results seem to prove, women tend to gravitate to accents that they associate with being manly and masculine."

"Take the Scottish for example – usually very deep, gruff and raw, while the posh accent exudes a certain level of status."

We asked three Sport stunnas what they thought about accents

Cindy Dollar says...

I LOVE a good accent... it's really sexy on some blokes. But if they're good in bed and can make me laugh – and orgasm – they can talk a foreign language for all I care!

#MY SEX FANTASY

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

SMOKIN' Sara Cole's fella is one lucky sod...because she treats him to bonking her sexy girlfriends!

The busty babe – who wows men with her 32FF fun bags – says they enjoy threesomes and MOREsomes together.

Sara, from Dublin, loves getting it on with girls and guys, describing that as “the best of both worlds”.

The 25-year-old told the Sport: “My boyfriend and I have a great relationship and we’re very sexual people.”

“We both agree that sex can just be sex and we don’t have a problem with the other person enjoying it with someone else.”

“But we always have our fun with other people together.”

Peachy

“I absolutely love girls – I can get so turned on by a hot girl with a big, peachy bum – but I am straight and I do prefer guys.”

“A girl is like amazing foreplay for me, but I do need a willy to finish me off!”

“It’s a massive turn on for us both to be open minded and to play with other people.”

“My man loves watching me in the throes of some girl-on-girl action. He’s always so grateful afterwards!”

“One time was especially hot. We went to a strip club for a laugh and got chatting to some of the dancers.”

“Next thing we knew, we were at a party with them and it turned into a huge orgy.”

“I think if Carlsberg made girlfriends, they’d make them like me!”

‘I love hot girls to turn me on and a willy to finish me off’

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Dani,

I WENT to a 21st birthday bash in a nightclub and ended up having it off with the DJ, even though he's only 23 and I'm a 40-year-old woman.

He was playing all this modern dance crap that sounded like someone was banging a load of dustbin lids together. I asked him to play Sexual Healing by Marvin Gaye and the dirty little bugger said he could give me some real sexual healing if I came out to his car after the bash.

I was feeling really horny by the end of the night and decided to take him up on his offer. I gasped when he took his huge knob out, but I still managed to suck it dry and take it in both holes in the back of his car in the car park.

Now I'm feeling guilty because I'm happily married. What do you think?

KH, Teesside

Dani says...

WELL, it doesn't sound like you are happily married to me.

Dear Dani,

I'm a 26-year-old single bloke and I was working late in the office one night recently when I had the urge to have a wank.

I logged on to a porn site and ogled busty girls indulging in lezbo sex while I idly played with my semi-hard tool.

Suddenly, in walked the boss. She's a looker in her 30s and although I tried to hide what I was doing, she said: "Who's a naughty boy, then?"

With that she grabbed my tool with a well-manicured hand and started to wank me off. With her other hand, she loosened her blouse and let her tits spill out.

She told me to suck her nipples hard, so I did. Then she let go of my dick, turned and bent over the desk and dropped her skirt and panties.

I plugged her love tunnel until she had a massive orgasm. But the next day, she gave me a bollocking for watching porn. I can't work it out.

FC, Glasgow

Dani says...

SHE'S just covering herself with her bosses, so get stuck in again.

I can't stop pulling my pud over Taylor Swift lookalike

Dear Dani,

I HAD a superb experience recently when the landlord at my local boozer put on topless barmmaids.

There were four of them in stockings, sussies and little G-strings.

One in particular was the spitting image of pop princess Taylor Swift.

She had flowing blonde locks and even wore the slightly vacant smile of the We Are Never Ever Getting Back Together songstress.

I've always had a bit of a thing for the former country crooner, but as she's a world famous star and has dated the likes of that One Direction brat

Harry Styles, I knew I would never have the chance to give her a good seeing-to.

But this stripper was a different matter altogether.

I even went over and told her of her similarity to Miss Swift and she giggled quite flirtily.

I'm hoping to get to know her more intimately soon.

She had magnificent tits and I'm still wanking myself daft at the memory.

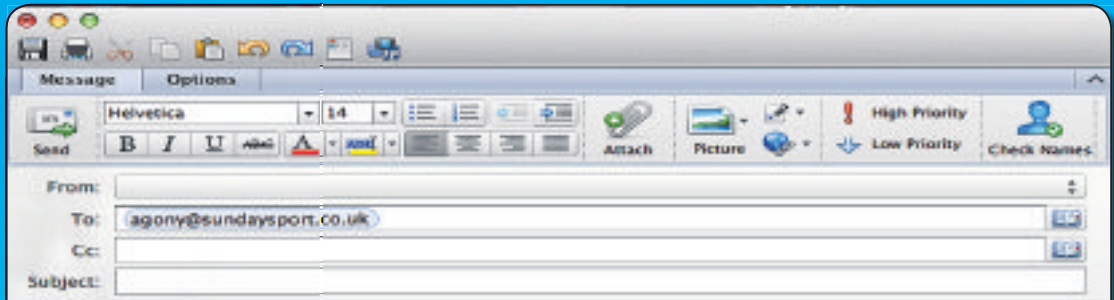

MG, East Midlands

Dani says...

DON'T overdo it! It's one thing to fantasise about famous folk, but quite another thing to pull the end off it in the process.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week DANI MAYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Bonking mum and daughter has put my life in danger!

Dear Dani,

I'M in hiding at the moment, so please don't print my address or my girlfriend and her mum will be round to tear my testicles off.

I've been a bit of a naughty lad. I have been giving them both a length without either of them realising it.

I'm 20 and pretty good at pulling women. I've had dozens, but this latest girl is absolutely stunning.

She's 18 and from a nice family. She was proud to be a virgin and I was chuffed too, since I'd never met one before.

Anyway, with all my charms and chat, it wasn't long before her virginity was history – a party, an overnight stay at her mate's house and, well, you can guess how it went.

She must have had a lot of sexual frustration pent up because when we lay on the bed she was all over me within minutes.

She literally tore off my jeans and pulled me to her. Despite all my experience, it was all I could do to stop myself peaking too soon.

Passion

We did it a couple more times, taking it slowly, then nodded off.

In the morning, she started to panic that her mum would know straight away what she'd been up to.

I said I would swear nothing happened and took her home. When I met her mum – her dad's always abroad – I was the model gentleman.

In fact, her mum was so impressed with me she invited me to dinner the next Sunday, which went great, except I found myself talking more to her than to her daughter.

I knew what was going to happen when I called round midweek when my girlfriend was at college.

We were undressed and deep in the throes of passion on the living room floor inside 10 minutes, her proving as fit as her daughter but with an even greater hunger.

I went on seeing both of them for a month – mum giving me the sexual release she thought I needed since her girl was, she thought, a virgin.

How they found out I don't know. The first I knew was when I got a threat of a severe working over from her dad, who it seems is an ex-con.

Help!

John L, address withheld

Dani says...

SPEND some time abroad yourself!

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

email: agony@sundaysport.co.uk Mail: Agony, Sunday Sport, Maclaren House, Talbot Road, Old Trafford, Manchester M32 0FP

Sis-in-law sex secret

Dear Dani,

MY brother's wife is a right cracker – blonde, nice body and lovely firm tits.

They held a party at their house and his missus looked very sexy.

She was flirting with the blokes all night and I saw her going out to the garden with her neighbour.

I followed and couldn't believe my eyes when I saw her whip out this bloke's cock and suck him off.

It was all I could do to stop myself coming there and then.

Later on, at about 2am, she led me upstairs to the bathroom, locked the door and said: "I know you want to fk me."

She was dead right and I took her doggy-style over the bath.

We've since met up a few times and I've shagged her senseless every time.

She says she's happy for me to go on seeing her on the sly, but all hell will break loose if my brother finds out.

What do you suggest?

ED, Staffs

Dani says...

THIS affair is dangerous. End it now.

Driving instructor gave me L of a ride

Dear Dani,

I'M an 18-year-old student and a few months ago I started driving lessons.

A pal recommended a woman neighbour and I booked her. She's blonde and in her mid-30s, but she's stunning and has a terrific figure, including firm breasts.

As I'd never driven before, she said she'd take me to a quiet country lane where I could practise.

Twenty minutes later we were parked in a layby. She got out to walk around the car and told me to slide across to the driver's seat.

As she got back in, her skirt rode up and I caught a glimpse of stocking top. I started to get a hard-on.

I was a bag of nerves and started to panic, but she told me to sit back and relax.

Then she put her hand on my leg and when I turned to look at her she leaned forward and kissed me on the lips.

Her tongue darted into my mouth as she slid her hand further up my leg to my groin.

She told me to undo my jeans and bent over to take my throbbing manhood between her lips.

A few minutes later I had to push her away as I neared a climax.

We scrambled into the back of the car, where she slipped off her panties and I got to work on her snatch with my tongue.

When she was all sloppy and wet, I eased my hard prick into her warm pussy right up to the hilt.

As I thrust in and out hard and fast, she wrapped her legs around me and screamed in ecstasy.

I've since had 12 further lessons and we've made love every time.

Now she says I'm ready for my test, but I'd much prefer to carry on as we are.

Any advice?

MG, East London

Dani says...

YOU could fail on purpose, but why not save your cash and simply ask her out?

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

JORDAN PRYCE

LOCKSMITH Timothy Spellar reckons the bigger the better when it comes to boobs – which is why Jordan Pryce is his favourite glamour girl.

Timothy, 47, from Newcastle, penned a letter to the Sport asking for a pic of 30-year-old mega-boobed beauty Jordan, from Bristol.

He said: "I do love boobs. I don't know any man who'd turn down a woman with a good pair of boobs, the bigger the better for me."

"Jordan is a stunning girl but I'm not going to lie, it's definitely her 32FF norks which catch my eye. I could stare at them for days."

SUMMER ST CLAIRE

WANNABE author Fredrick Grant spends his days penning short stories but took time out to email in asking for a sexy snap of Summer St Claire.

Fredrick, 65, from Richmond, London, loves 25-year-old Summer's curly hair but appreciates her womanly curves much more.

He takes regular breaks to read the Sport and thinks of Summer, from Horsham, Surrey, when he needs inspiration for a saucy tale.

Fredrick said: "Could I please have a photo of Summer with her 32E's on show, she's a real gem."

SIOBHAN MURRAY

BUILDER Tony Lochlan emailed in wanting a photo of sexy Siobhan to show all his work pals just how much of a babe she really is.

Tony, 34, from Carlisle, said none of his colleagues understand his obsession with 25-year-old Siobhan, from Bury.

And he wants to show them what they're missing by taking a saucy photo of her onto site.

He said: "They'll not stop ribbing me about fancying her until I show them a good photo of her."

"The sexiest photo you've got please, ideally with her 34D boobs looking sensational."

Here you go Tony, we reckon this stocking-clad snap will shut your workmates right up!

Haven't seen your favourite model for a while? Drop us a note and we'll put her in the paper! Email request@sundaysport.co.uk

"My fantasy would be having kinky sex with an audience. My flat has this big balcony, with transparent glass."

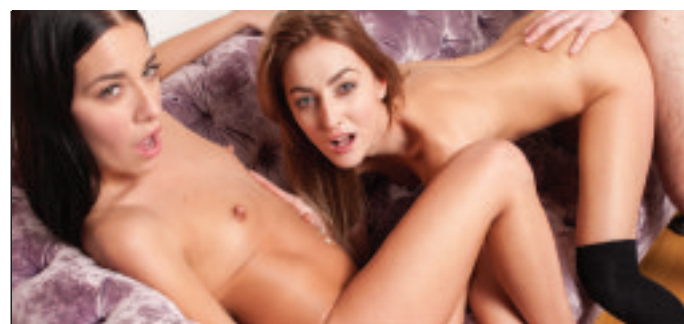

Risky

"I love the thought of getting naughty on there in the middle of the day in full view of all the neighbours!"

"The thought of being watched like that is such a massive turn-on. I've always been up for a risky outdoor shagging!"

Invincible Lions look to Tom as Plunkett sits it out

CURRAN IN POLE POSITION BUT ROOT CHASES INDIAN PAYDAY

TOM Curran looks set for an England call-up at the Adelaide Oval.

The Three Lions have already tied up the one-day series by going 3-0 up with two games to play.

But they will have to play the final pair of matches without key bowler Liam Plunkett.

He pulled his hamstring during the win over the old enemy at the SCG on Sunday.

The big seamer won't be risked with the series already in the bag and a trip to New Zealand on the horizon. Curran is at the front of the queue to take over having played a couple of the Ashes Tests.

David Willey and Jake Ball could also come into the side — although skipper Eoin Morgan wants a 5-0 win so is unlikely to rest any of his key men.

Meanwhile, Joe Root has pulled out of the T20 squad for the tri-series against the Aussies and New Zealand next month.

That's so he can go and chase the big money on offer in the Indian Premier League. It seems a strange call for the England Test captain to turn his back on more caps for his country.

But he's sitting out the T20 games so he doesn't have too many miles on the clock when the IPL gets into full swing in April.

Root has the highest reserve price in the IPL auction at £170,000 and is certain to go for a lot more than that.

Head coach Trevor Bayliss has given his blessing for Root to miss the Tri-Series, although he will be back to take on New Zealand in the 50-over series at the end of February. Root admitted: "I hate missing games of cricket for England."

"It is something that doesn't really sit well with me either. It was a long, hard decision that me and Trevor had to come to."

"You look at the amount of cricket that we have got coming up and the opportunity that the IPL brings and you almost have to look at it as more of an investment for my game and for all the England team moving forward."

"If being involved in that block of cricket, with everything that tournament brings, is going to add more to my game for the next four or five years then missing a few games here might be worthwhile."

The Yorkshireman added: "Of course, there is a money side to it, there is no point lying about it."

"That is obviously a benefit of playing in the IPL but that is not why I went into the auction. I really believe playing a block of T20 cricket with that scrutiny, being under pressure for long periods of time against the world's players in that format would be a great opportunity to develop and learn my white-ball game."

SPIN STAR: Lloyd Pope

Aussie kids have England in a spin

ENGLAND under-19s came up against the best bowling figures in World Cup history as Australia knocked them out in the quarter-finals.

The Young Lions looked set for a semi-final spot after bowling the Baggy Greens out for just 127 in Queenstown, New Zealand.

And they were going along beautifully in their run chase as they reached 47 without loss.

But that's when the ball was thrown to Aussie leg spinner Lloyd Pope.

And just like the senior side, England's youngsters had no idea how to play a good tweaker.

He skittled the Lions to take a fantastic eight wickets for 35 fans.

England were all out for just 96 with half their overs left.

Pope said: "I'm still shaking. Quite unbelievable, isn't it? It's awesome to be going to the semi-final."

"It's quite different. It's weird to have cameras shoved into your face straight after it."

Awesome

"It's different. Like when I play club cricket, your team-mates congratulate you, maybe when I'm home the parents say 'well done'. So this feels weird."

"I just love bowling. It's an unreal experience. I always love playing for my country whether I'm taking wickets or not, so going out there and doing it with some really good mates was an awesome experience."

England captain Harry Brook was clearly gutted to lose in such dramatic fashion.

He said: "Getting through to the quarter-finals is a great achievement, but I am not the kind who likes second place."

"I am pretty disappointed. I don't think it hurts more because we lost to Australia. Losing to any team is the same."

"Pope just bowled very well and got some turn off the pitch, but we also played a few bad shots, but the day goes on."

"The pitch wasn't that bad really, both sides didn't bat well. You can't really fault the pitch. After a defeat like that, we'll have stuff to say about everything and hopefully the lads will buy into it."

STARTING CHANCE: Curran

THE WINNING POST

Silva looks so solid

IT will be tough going at both Catterick and Exeter today, providing the cards are on and it will take a certain horse to handle these conditions.

Today's NAP has rock solid form in the mud and has the advantage of bottom weight today as well.

SILVA ECLIPSE (NAP) chased home Noble Robin last time out which looks good form as Jonjo O'Neill's charge has looked an above average novice so far this season.

With this in mind a mark of 122 could underestimate Silva Eclipse and as Sue Smith has chuckled him into handicap company I expect she believes she has a well in horse on her hands.

His rivals have good form to their name, but a few have questions to answer at this present moment in time so I'm plumping for the younger, least exposed horse hoping that he can improve past his older rivals.

By BEN MORGAN

Exeter is a stiff track at the best of times, but today will be a whole new test as the ground will be very, very soft. RICH-ARDOFDOCCOMBE seems to have a preference for heavy ground and also the ability to stay a little further than two miles which means he must have a squeak in the 2.50.

He arguably ran a career best last time out at Uttoxeter, which is amazing given he is 12 years of age. Jockey, Kieron Edgar, retains the partnership today and claims a handy 3lbs and with that taken into consideration I expect him to there or thereabouts.

Tom Lacey seems to have a knack of finding good young horses and he looks to have another useful recruit on his hands in the shape of CON-INGSBY. Despite being relatively unfancied on debut, he made the favourite pull out all the stops over 2m 3f last time and that race looked above average at the time.

The extra yardage today will play to his strengths and Thomas O'Brien claims five which might be enough to give him the advantage over his main market rival Samburu Shujaa.

Because she said so, bids to follow up last week's win at Chepstow but may find TRIPLE CHIEF a tough nut to crack. Bryony Frost's mount has been holding his form well over the past few months and comes here a fresher horse than the likely favourite which could make all the difference in the last 100 yards.

TENNIS — ALL THE LATEST NEWS FROM

DELIGHT: Mertens

Mertens adds to shocks with Svitolina win

WHILE Kyle Edmund has been causing shocks in the men's draw, there have been surprises in the women's competition too.

Belgium's unfancied Elise Mertens has clinched a place in the semi-finals after knocking out fourth seed Elina Svitolina.

She had never been any further than the third round of a Grand Slam before the last two weeks in Melbourne.

And it was barely in doubt as Mertens raced through 6-4, 6-0 against her more fancied rival.

The 22-year-old has fought her way to 37th in the world but her win still goes down as a major shock.

And her next opponent — great Dane Caroline Wozniacki — will be in for a rough ride.

Svitolina looked the more nervous of the pair despite having more experience.

Emotions

She struggled to get her serve in at times and couldn't get her game going.

A delighter Mertens is the first Belgian to reach the semis in Melbourne since her mentor Kim Clijsters in 2011.

She trains with the former Grand Slam champion and said to her idol: "I'm trying to be in your footsteps!"

"I'm without words. I feel mixed emotions, all good emotions."

"I gave it all today. It was a little stressy at the end but I played my game and it went well on the court today.

"She's a great mover, a really strong player. I just tried to be aggressive."

Wozniacki is in the Aussie semis for the first time since 2011.

She saw off Spaniard Carla Suarez Navarro in three sets — 6-0, 6-7, 6-2 in a late-night clash that didn't start until 11pm.

The Dane said: "I knew it wasn't going to be that easy."

"A lot of games in the first set were very close. In the second set I had the chance to close it out, I didn't do it and that was very disappointing but I was proud that I managed to stay cool and finish it off in the third set."

"Mertens has had an amazing start to the year, I think she's undefeated."

"It's going to be tough one but I'm excited for it. Another semi-final here, it's exciting."

KYLE COMES IN ANDY!

No1: Murray is out but Edmund is flying the flag for Britain

Edmund follows Murray's footsteps

KYLE Edmund says he knows how Andy Murray feels after making the Aussie Open semi-final.

The British No2 has been a sensation down under to become only the second Brit in the last four there since 1977.

And the relatively unknown Edmund is getting a taste of life in the limelight.

At 23 and with his form improving, he might have to get used to it.

Edmund said: "I know what it feels like to be Andy Murray for the last eight years or so! It comes with the territory of playing professional sport.

"The better you do, the more attention you get."

"It's probably the first time I've done well on my own so there's more attention there but you just try to take it in your stride and embrace it as much as possible."

"It's a good problem to have when you're winning and getting all that attention so I guess the more I keep winning the better."

Murray himself is back at home recovering from hip surgery but took time to put a simple message on Twitter after Edmund battered Grigor Dimitrov.

The Scot simply said: "Wow!"

Edmund has some experience of pressure thanks to his exploits alongside Murray in the British Davis Cup team.

Enjoy

He believes he has got what it takes to go on and win his first Grand Slam.

After dumping the No3 seed out of the tournament, he has every right.

Edmund added: "With these sort of things you're so emotionally engaged you don't really take it in, you don't really enjoy yourself, just at the end."

"It's my first match on this court and it was very special indeed."

"I had a bit of a dip in that second set and I think it was quite poor tennis at some point but in the third I managed to break him right at the end but I just really held my nerve in that last game and just prayed that last ball was out."

"It's obviously great. You don't really think about those things when you're playing,

FROM THE AUSTRALIAN OPEN

DELIGHT: Edmund punches the air after winning his quarter-final you're just trying to do your best.

"But for sure it's something I'm going to be proud of at some point.

"As a kid you're just looking up at idols, guys you aspire to be.

Tough

"And when you're on these type of stages reaching the last stages of one of the best tournaments in the world, it's obviously very pleasing but of course I want to keep going."

Edmund will now face Marin Cilic in the semi-final. He made the most of Dimitrov being tired after some tough matches and he'll have the same advantage again.

The No6 seed came through a five-set epic with Rafa Nadal that ended at around midnight in Melbourne.

The Spaniard was forced to retire hurt after going a break down in the deciding set.

Edmund already has another assignment waiting for him when the Aussie Open is over.

He has been named in Great Britain's Davis Cup squad for their crunch match against Spain next in less than two weeks' time.

Captain Leon Smith is looking to Edmund to shoulder the burden usually carried by Murray.

Smith said: "I know the guys really enjoy playing for Great Britain.

"I had dinner with Kyle and his team and so much of the conversation with him was about Davis Cup – even though he was playing in the quarter-finals the next day. He is genuinely excited to be going to Davis Cup."

It's a big match because the winners go through to the semi-finals against Germany or Australia.

For the losers, it's relegation to the World Group play-offs.

QUESTION: Southgate asks Dier if he knows how the Europa League works

Does ANYONE understand the Nations League?

THE draw is being made for the new UEFA Nations League today. The home managers are in Switzerland to discover who they will be playing.

The tournament replaces most friendly matches and means all games are worth points. It is made up of four mini-leagues – and each of those is split into four groups of three or four teams.

Instead of playing friendlies, England will play three other top European nations home and away trying to make the Final Four showpiece in summer 2019.

The winners of that will be crowned Nations League champion.

The idea is that there will be no more friendlies with nothing at all riding on the result.

Teams will play against other nations with a similar ranking. If the "smaller" countries do well they will be promoted to play the "bigger" nations.

Eh?

It's all very confusing! The 55 European teams have been split into four leagues and the smaller groups will be picked from these.

England are in League A, Wales are in League B with the Republic and Northern Ireland.

Scotland are in League C. What it means is that you will be playing against teams from your own League – but not all of them.

If anyone really understands what's going on, could they let us know!

■League A (four groups of three): Germany, Portugal, Belgium, Spain, France, England, Switzerland, Italy, Poland, Iceland, Croatia, Netherlands

■League C (one group of three, three groups of four): Hungary, Romania, Scotland, Slovenia, Greece, Serbia, Albania, Norway, Montenegro, Israel, Bulgaria, Finland, Cyprus, Estonia, Lithuania

ROUGH RIDE: McInnes

McInnes to feel heat at Rangers

DEREK McInnes will get a "warm" welcome at Rangers tonight after turning down the chance to manage the club.

That's the verdict of Graeme Murty who continues in charge of Gers in the light of that snub.

The Aberdeen gaffer brings the Dons to Ibrox as the Premiership clicks into life again.

McInnes was expected to take over the Glasgow giants after Pedro Caixinha was shown the door.

After drawn-out talks, he decided to stay at Pittodrie — much to the anger of Light Blues fans.

Murty said: "I don't think any Rangers-Aberdeen game needs any extra edge. There always seems to be something going on."

"Derek made his position perfectly clear. We respect his position. He is staying at a good football club, with a good squad that he is putting together really well."

"We have to respect them and respect what they are about but focus on what we're great at and hopefully take the positive energy from doing well against them twice into this game."

"The atmosphere will be tasty but they always are in these games."

Rodwell for Hoops

SUNDERLAND midfielder Jack Rodwell is being linked with a move to Celtic.

The former England international could have his contract terminated by the Black Cats this month.

That would alert Hoops boss Brendan Rodgers who is a fan of the 26-year-old. He could snap him up on a free transfer.

Rodwell has become something of a joke for his "curse" which means Sunderland never won a Premier League match with the former Everton man in the starting line-up.

He would have to take a massive cut from his £70,000 a week wages.

CHARLIE MCCANN

WITH HIS SPORTING ODDS AND ENDS

FEDERER CAN STILL ROGER RIVALS

GOLDEN OLDIE: Federer is hard to beat in Australia

ROGER Federer was 4/6 favourite with BetVictor to retain his Australian Open title ahead of this morning's quarter-final with Thomas Berdych.

The Swiss ace holds a 19-6 winning record against the Czech and the pair first met in the 2004 Athens Olympics.

Federer is 1/6 to reach the semis and Even money to win in straight sets. Berdych impressed when disposing of Fabio Fognini in straight sets and in another era would have certainly won at least one major. He says he is fit and healthy and back to his best and I think he can take a set off Federer, which is 13/5 at BetVictor.

Britain's Kyle Edmund is 12/1 to lift the title on Sunday and will meet Rafa Nadal's conqueror Marin Cilic in the semi-final on Friday morning following his brilliant win over Grigor Dimitrov in the early hours of yesterday morning.

The Croat Cilic deserves to be favourite given he was quite outstanding against Nadal and he is 4/11 to reach the final with Edmund 11/5 at BetVictor and just 8/1 to be named Sports Personality of the Year in December.

Arsenal entertain Chelsea this evening and this will be the

But Berdych to nick a set off legend fifth time this season the sides have met with all four previous encounters having finished level — 2 x Premier League, 1 x Community Shield and the first leg of the Carabao Cup semi-final.

Chelsea have lost just one of their last eight away games against Arsenal in all competitions and I think they will make the Wembley Final in what promises to be a better game than the cagey first leg.

The Blues are 29/20 to win in 90 minutes with the Gunners 19/10 and the draw at 5/2. Antonio Conte's side kept a valuable clean sheet in the first leg and they returned to form when putting four past Brighton at the Amex at the weekend.

Conte is not certain to start Alvaro Morata who is available again following his red card against Norwich in the FA Cup last week.

Edin Dzeko is reported to be on the verge of a move to the Bridge from Roma and Michy Batshuayi might be surplus to requirements at the Bridge.

The striker is Evens with BetVictor to join Seville during the current transfer window.

Arsene Wenger has reached the League Cup final twice as Arsenal manager (2007 and 2011) but this is the only domestic trophy he has not won.

The Gunners are 6/5 to qualify for the final with Chelsea 4/6 with BetVictor and the latter must be the recommendation although it could easily go to extra time.

★ England are Evens with BetVictor to take a 4-0 lead in their best-of-five ODI Series against Australia on Friday morning in Adelaide and Eoin Morgan's side have been outstanding whether chasing or defending a total in their three internationals to date.

England will want to turn the screw and they ought to be favourites — although Steve Smith will want to avoid a potential white-wash for his Baggy Greens.

★ Exeter describe their Sam inspection as precautionary for today's six-raced card. In the finale, I did not think it was conditional jockey Tommy Dowling's finest hour when he was unseated from Finnegan's Garden at Cheltenham on Friday before the race had begun in earnest.

That said the winner Beauseshesaidso (4.25) made all in impressive fashion and a 7lbs rise is unlikely to prevent a follow up.

The selection has been raised 12lb by the handicapper and is thus 5lb "well-in" and if in the same mood he will be tough to pass.

Both Coningsby (3.20) and Samburu Shujaa look sure to appreciate the step up in trip to today's near two-and-three-quarter miles and preference for the Tom Lacey runner is marginal.

The selection won a point in December before staying on over three furlongs shorter here at the beginning of the month on heavy ground.

SAINTS MOVE: Silva

Silva looks polished for switch to Saints

SACKED Watford boss could be set for a rapid return to the Premier League at Southampton.

The Hornets fired the Argle on Sunday, saying he'd lost his focus since Everton chased him before Christmas.

Southampton are having a tough time with just four wins in 24 Premier League games this season.

Despite nicking a point off Tottenham at the weekend, they are in real danger of the drop.

Boss Mauricio Pellegrino has failed to stamp his authority at St Mary's after taking over in the summer.

The bookies have reported a run of bets on Silva taking over on the south coast.

But Pellegrino believes he has the Saints on the "right path" after taking a little time to settle in at the club.

He said: "The players don't fight just for me. They fight for themselves. They fight for the club."

"There is something bigger than me and the players and this is the club and respect our fans, the club, the board and people."

Convert

"My first commitment is I love my profession but football is like when you are dancing with the other."

"It is 22 and not just 11. I think the team in the last four or five weeks from Manchester United game move one step forward in our consistency, but also now we cannot convert this moment in more points for the table."

"Even against Palace the first half we play a good game, against Watford the first half was really good."

"In some aspects we have to move one step forward and today the attitude from the beginning until the end was good."

"Something we have to improve is to keep the ball more because it's difficult to run behind the ball against this side a lot of time."

"We have to improve the capacity to hold the ball in the opponent half and from this position anything can change."

Watford have brought in former Rubin Kazan boss Javi Gracia to take over from Silva.

Desperate Dan Inter loan to save World Cup dream

STURRIDGE WANTS ITALY SWITCH AS ENGLAND HOPES FADE FAST

INTER MILAN have made Liverpool a "substantial" offer to take Daniel Sturridge on loan.

The Reds striker is desperate to force through the move to keep his fading World Cup dream alive.

England boss Gareth Southgate has frozen out any player who is not a first-team regular for their club.

With the Three Lions still short of attacking talent behind Harry Kane and Jamie Vardy, Sturridge could yet force his way into the squad for Russia this summer.

By JOHN ANTHONY

But that won't happen while he's sat in the Anfield stands.

It looks as though he has fallen behind Danny Ings in the Liverpool pecking order.

So the interest from Italy — where AS Roma could also be interested — is a boost for Sturridge.

Inter have long wanted the 28-year-old and would be looking to make the loan permanent in the summer.

But Roma have entered the fray as Chelsea close in on their frontman Edin Dzeko.

Sturridge has made just five starts for the Reds this season but boss Jurgen Klopp is not keen for him to leave until another forward comes in.

Deal

That doesn't look likely in this window where Liverpool have already lost Philippe Coutinho.

Sturridge is not the only Anfield player being targeted by Italian giants.

Juventus want midfielder Emre Can whose contract runs out at the end of this season. For months it has looked a done deal that he would be heading to Turin.

But the German is thinking about signing a new deal to stay at Liverpool — and Bayern Munich have also started sniffing about which has turned his head.

Rumours are also linking Real Madrid with the 24-year-old, another club that Klopp couldn't compete with.

Can is known to be happy at Liverpool but won't sign his new deal unless it contains a release clause — something the Reds don't want to offer. It looks as though he will wait until the summer to decide.

Juventus general manager Beppe Marotta admits the transfer has hit a snag.

He said: "The interest is clear. We want to try and bring him to us, but we cannot do it because he currently has a contract with Liverpool.

"He could renew it and, moreover, there are other teams interested in him.

"We want to try and bring him to Turin. I am stating this with full awareness that he might not arrive, but we need to have important objectives."

WANTS OUT:
Daniel Sturridge

NEW CLARET: Lennon

Lennon makes move to Clarets

AARON Lennon has completed his move to Burnley.

The winger has left Everton for Turf Moor days after the arrival at Goodison of Theo Walcott from Arsenal.

Lennon, 30, is the first permanent signing of the winter window for the Clarets.

He said: "Burnley was the club I wanted to come to and I can't wait to get started. I'm looking forward to playing here.

"The club is moving forward and I want to hopefully play a part in that to keep it going in that direction.

"I think I've still got a lot to offer. I am only 30 and I still want to play at the highest level.

"I have missed a bit of football in the last year or so and I just want to get back and play as much as possible. I've never had an easy game against Burnley and this year they have done fantastic.

"They deserve to be where they are. Hopefully I can help the side continue that and have a good end to the season.

England

"The team has done brilliant. There are 14 games to go and hopefully we can kick on and maintain a place in the top half, which would be brilliant for the football club."

Lennon joined Everton in September 2015 after playing for Tottenham and Leeds United.

He has 21 England caps and went to the 2006 and 2010 World Cups.

He has come through some mental health problems to get his career back on track.

But Everton boss Sam Allardyce has brought in Walcott which made it hard to see the winger playing much in the Toffees' first team.

Lennon says Michael Keane — who swapped Turf Moor for Goodison in the summer — urged him to move to East Lancashire.

He added: "I spoke to Keane a few times. He had nothing but good words to say about the club and he wished me well.

"He's a great lad and a top player. I played with him for a little while and he's a top player, who's going to go a long way in the game."

RARING TO GO: Sanchez

Friday night looks alright to Sanchez

EXCITED Manchester United players have been welcoming new signing Alexis Sanchez to Old Trafford.

The Chile star has finally completed his move from Arsenal, with Henrikh Mkhitaryan going the other way to the Emirates.

Ashley Young, David De Gea and Jesse Lingard all quickly took to Twitter to welcome their new team-mate.

And Sanchez has quickly settled in at training ground Carrington where he has had his first session as a United player.

He is not cup-tied so can play against Yeovil in the FA Cup on Friday night.

Jose Mourinho is not likely to play him from the start against the lower leaguers — but a place on the bench is likely.

Over the coming weeks, it will be interesting to see how Sanchez fits in with the other attacking talent at the club.

Offensive

It's easy to see him dovetailing with Romelu Lukaku as the focal point.

But there are surely not enough places in the starting XI for Anthony Martial, Marcus Rashford, Juan Mata, Jesse Lingard and Zlatan Ibrahimovic.

With Paul Pogba already an attacking midfielder, it would be the first time Mourinho fielded anything like as offensive a line-up if more than one of his other forwards play.

There are fears that Rashford in particular will suffer from the arrival of Sanchez.

The Reds are likely to line up with three attacking midfielders playing just behind Lukaku.

With Sanchez and Pogba taking two of those spots, Rashford will either be shoved out wide or not play at all. It's equally hard to see Lingard playing so many games as currently, despite his excellent scoring record.

Former club Valencia are interested in signing Mata — who spent four years at the club — in this transfer window.

The Spaniard is available on a free transfer at the end of this season as his contract expires.

United could choose to take a small fee for him now rather than lose the 29-year-old for nothing.

much completed. He said: "Kenedy is going on loan to Newcastle.

"If the club decides to loan one player, they must decide to buy another or work with a young player. I'm ready for both cases and then the club has to decide the best for the club.

"When it comes to Dzeko and Emerson, I don't know. If there is news, the club will inform you."

Kenedy has hit the headlines for the wrong reasons since signing for Chelsea. He was carpeted for dodgy tweets while on the pre-season tour of China and has struggled to get in the first team since.

Despite that, Conte is not giving up on the Brazilian winger — even though he showed little while on loan at Watford last season.

Starting

He added: "For sure we are talking about a young player with great potential. He needs to play with regularity. To go to Newcastle, it's a great challenge for him."

"This is a good way for the club. We used the same way for Andreas Christensen and he is now a Chelsea player and always playing in starting XI.

"This is a good opportunity for Kenedy. He must be ready to fight to play in Newcastle — don't forget last season he spent first six months at Watford and struggled to play."

"But I think now he's more ready. He plays with us in many games and can show his potential on loan."

Conte's lack of attacking options is exposed in the Carabao Cup semi-final.

He takes his side to Arsenal with the scores tied at 0-0 from the first leg. Alvaro

Aubameyang deal 'not over the line yet'

ARSENE Wenger says it's too soon to call Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang an Arsenal player.

The Gunners boss has poured cold water on reports that the Borussia Dortmund striker will allow at the Emirates by the weekend.

For once, tight Arse is willing to splash the cash, with £50million on the table for the 28-year-old. But there's a still a long way to go before the deal is done.

Wenger said: "Confident or not confident? I don't know. At the moment, we are not close to doing any deal, whether it's Aubameyang or anyone else."

"You never know how close they are. These are the kind of things that, at the moment, are one of the possible movements."

"We have other things in mind as well and we have plenty of opportunities in different positions. The final decision is not made."

Exchange

Wenger has also been hinting that Olivier Giroud would have to leave before Aubameyang arrives.

That could alert Everton, who were close to signing the Frenchman in the summer.

Giroud is desperate for first-team football with the World Cup looming in Russia this summer.

Wenger wants to reunite Aubameyang with former Dortmund playmaker Henrikh Mkhitaryan who has arrived from Old Trafford in exchange for Alexis Sanchez. The Armenian is cup-tied for tonight's Carabao Cup semi-final against Chelsea.

STILL TALKING: Wenger

Wenger is keen to make it to the final and will put out a strong team against the Bridge boys.

He said: "It's an important game and we want to go to the final."

"We have an opportunity to do it at home against Chelsea. I think the two teams know each other very well."

Honestly, I don't see any favourite in the tie."

Danny Welbeck is set to start and Wenger insists that the former Manchester United striker has a place in his plans.

He said: "I want Danny to stay here, he is a very good player."

"We'll see at the end of the window. There's still a lot that will happen as usual on the transfer market."

Morata won't be making the trip across London after suffering a back injury.

He missed the weekend win over Brighton in the Premier League when the Blues managed to bang in four goals without their big summer signing.

Willian and Eden Hazard got the job done against struggling Albion — but Arsenal should be stiffer opposition.

Those two and Michy Batshuayi are Conte's only options so he won't be able to rotate with future Premier League games in mind.

Cesc Fabregas will also sit out the match with the hamstring problem that saw him on the sidelines against Brighton.

Conte said: "Morata and Fabregas are definitely out, they're not available for us."

"Then I have to check a couple other players."

Advantage

"I think Arsenal has a good squad. If you remember the game at home in the league, Sanchez didn't play."

"The same in the EFL Cup, he only played 10 minutes. I don't see any advantage about this situation."

Conte maintains that he does care about winning the competition and will have his players fully focused.

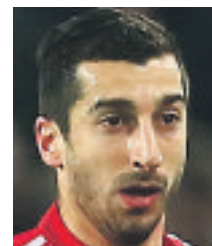

He added: "For me, my players, for the fans, it's an important target, especially for me."

"In my first year or so, I have the opportunity to win the Premier League, play the FA Cup final and now I can play another final."

"To have this possibility to play many finals in this country, it is very important for me. To play the final we must get past Arsenal, which is always a big challenge. Arsenal will also want to go to the final."
